To Messrs: Ahrensfeld, Crohn, Greer, Henson, Pepples, Stevens, Temko

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is my February 8 draft of the CO submission which has been marked up to reflect the changes that each of you have proposed. I am currently having the document retyped to reflect these changes, but I thought that it was preferable to send you the marked up version rather than waiting for the revised clean version.

I do not think that any of the changes that have been made will pose any problem for any of you. I will, however, wait until 2 p.m. on February 20 (the filing date) before submitting the document to the Commission. If any of you have any further revisions, please call me before that time. If I do not hear from you, I will file the document at 2 p.m. on the 20th. With regard to signatures, one of the counsel suggested that it would be desirable for names of each of the companies' counsel to be included on the submission in order that further Commission releases will be sent to their attention. Recognizing the mechanical problem in obtaining these signatures, I have arrived at a compromise. The document will conclude:

"Respectfully submitted,

In addition, I will include with the submission a short cover letter which is attached hereto. The purpose of the cover letter is to have some document that contains an actual signature.
